NEW PRESIDENT

ELECTED FOR VIRGINIA VALLEY LEAGUE JOHN C BOND OF CHARLESTON.

At an adjourned meeting of the directors of the Virginia Valley base ball league held at the Frederick hotel in this city shortly after 2 o'clock this morning, the resignation of Jno. A. Spinney, of Cincinnati, as president of the league was received and accepted and John C. Bond, a well known newspaper man of Charleston was unanimously elected president.

The retirement of Spinney and the election of Bond will mark an epoch in the base ball history of Huntington, as it means the ending of the baseball war that has been waged during the present season between the teams representing the Mountain State Athletic Association and the Huntington League company. Wm. Seiber president of the Mountain State team, will become a stockholder in the local team and the two aggregations will be merged into a fast league team. The best material will be picked out of both teams and Huntington will be given a team that will no doubt be a winner in the league race. As is well known by the general public, the fight that has been waged between the two teams has been a losing one for both teams, as well as the hundreds of enthusiastic base ball fans in Huntington and now that the battle is over and the peace document will soon be signed, a sigh of relief will come, and bring with it great favor among Huntingtonians.

Mr. Spinney was the originator of the Virginia Valley league and has always had its interests at heart. However, the fact that he is tied up in his business affairs in Cincinnati kept him from taking any active part in the management. He most heartily tendered his resignation, when he learned that it would be for the best interest of the league and in this, is to be heartily commended. The new headquarters of the league will be at Charleston, where Mr. Bond resides. In addition to the duties of president, Bond will also look after the secretary's responsibilities and this will be quite a saving for the league. He will assume the duties of the presidency immediately. — Huntington-Herald Dispatch.

More than a thousand people, probably half of them strangers, saw manager Mack's team defeat the Ashland-Catlettsburg here Sunday, last. Double-header was played and the local team won both games in the worst batfest that has taken place on the local diamond this season. Mack's players made twenty hits off the Ashland pitchers in the two games and at no time did the Ashlanders have any show to win. Catcher Hunter had his finger split in the fourth inning of the first game, which seriously handicapped the team. He will be out of the game for possibly two weeks. Daugherty is behind the bat until he is able to get in the game again. The team left for Ashland, Tuesday morning, where they play three games, returning here Friday, Saturday and Sunday for four games with Parkersburg. Double-header on Sunday to which there will be excursion both by rail and river, and a large crowd is expected. The steamer Greenwood brought a large crowd down from the Pomeroy Bend last Sunday, turning away a great many that wanted to come, on account of not having sufficient life preservers aboard. We are close around first place in the race, which is a close one and with any kind of luck in the Parkersburg games should be holding that coveted position after the series.

The following is the games in detail since our last report:

WEDNESDAY'S GAME.

Ashland, Ky., June 15.—Boosters Day in Ashland proved to be a big success, as more than 500 loyal fans turned out to see the game, paying one dollar for their admission ticket. Just to show the fans that they were of the right spirit The Twins trounced the Point Pleasant team to the tune of 11 to 2. Errors on the part of the Pointers is what caused the big score for Ashland Catlettsburg for they only made nine hits.

LOCAL MAN

IN AUTOMOBILE SMASH—NO ONE HURT, HOWEVER.

Staunton, Va., June 10.—The Atlanta-New York cars arrived here to-night after the worst time spent on the road since the trip started. The entire afternoon was spent in rain over hilly and muddy roads. Several cars were not able to finish. The penalties had not been posted at midnight as the official car had not arrived.

The West Virginia car entered by S. C. Smith, of Bluefield, expects to have a clear record.

The Columbus car entered by the Columbus Buggy Co., driven by Dr. Guthrie, of Huntington, of the West Virginia Asylum, pitched over an embankment on a curve near Lexington this afternoon, with all the occupants. Fortunately the car did not turn over and no one was injured.

The first car to reach Dr. Guthrie and party was the Speedwell car entered from Bluefield. Tol Stribling, of Point Pleasant, W. Va., was taken aboard and landed in Lexington, where he secured horses to pull the car up the bank. The road today was the poorest struck between Atlanta and here.

HORSE THIEF CAUGHT.

A telegram from Athens says that Marshal Mills of that place made a good haul when he arrested a horse thief by the name of Felix Jefferis, who gave his home as Leon, Mason county, W. Va. The horse that was stolen, a splendid little bay mare, is held here until its owner, George Sponall, of near Pomeroy, can come to take it home. Yesterday Jefferis pulled into Athens from Parkersburg with the mare and tried to sell her to Dr. Charles Secoy and H. H. Haning for $100. Jefferis is about 18 years old and is a hard looking customer. Marshall Mills arrested him and secured a confession that the horse was stolen. This morning he got into communication with Spoonall and learned that the mare had been stolen from him on Monday night. The youth that did the job crossed the Ohio river at Point Pleasant and into Ohio again near Parkersburg. Meigs county officers will come here after him. It is believed there is a reward for the arrest of the thief.—Parkersburg Sentinel.

GLAD TIDINGS.

A host of friends are rejoicing over the encouraging reports that have reached here from the John Hopkins Hospital concerning Mr. G. A. Roush, who is being treated at that institution. For some time past Mr. Roush's state of health has been most deplorable. His family and many friends have been deeply solicitous, and gravely apprehensive as to the outcome. Now, however, eminent physicians of that hospital, Staffe, have announced that hopes of his ultimate recovery may be entertained with universal pleasure and thankfulness—fitting testimonial of the high regard which this fine man has won for himself in the estimation of our people.

FILED ANSWER.

Charleston, W. Va., June 10.—Attorney General Conley filed the state's answer to the bill of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway company in the two-cent passenger fare case in the Kanawha circuit court. The answer asks that the injunction heretofore granted by Judge Burdett, restraining the re-enforcement of the law as to that road on the ground that the law is unconstitutional, be dissolved, since in the Coal and Coke Railway case the supreme court of appeals has held the law to be constitutional. Judge Burdett set June 27 for argument of the case.

FLAG DAY

FITTINGLY OBSERVED YESTERDAY BY D. A. R.

The local members of the Col. Charles Lewis Chapter D. A. R., gave their annual social meeting at the "Mansion House" in Tu Endie Wei Park, on Tuesday, June 14th. There were many interests that centered round the day. First, it was the closing of the administration of the present Regent, Mrs. D. E. Newton, of Hartford, and the ladies of the Chapter entertained complimentary to Regent, a fitting of one of the ablest administration the chapter has had. Secondly, it was the anniversary of the adoption of the American flag and therefore a delightful flag program was arranged. Third, the Chapter has at this time to receive a splendid gift, Dr. A. L. Knight's splendid canvas, the picture of the bottle of Point Pleasant, and last but not least, the local ladies were anxious to throw open their Chapter House not only to the members of the Chapter but that they might feel at liberty of Home when they too might bid their friends. The old house had just undergone its thorough spring house cleaning and for the first time in the history of the Chapter House the splendid collection of relics had been so classified as to be a reproduction of an old Colonial Home. The welcome of the hostesses was such as to emphasize a true home-coming.

At 12:30 the two course picnic dinner was served, the menu consisted of boiled curly ham, chicken salad, potato chips, deviled eggs, olives, radishes, brown bread sandwiches, white bread sandwiches and coffee, with a second course consisted of ice cream, in the national colors and delicious home made cakes and nuts.

Following the lunch the program was taken up, the first being the presentation of the picture of the Battle of Point Pleasant and its acceptance by the Regent, both of which addresses are published elsewhere in this issue. The unveiling being by Dr. Knight's four daughters, Mrs. Brown, of Charleston; Mrs. Probst, of Columbus, Ohio; Mrs. Archer, of Huntington and Mrs. Keeley, of Montgomery.

The roll call was responded to by quotations on the flag. The secretary then read the report of the last meeting, which embraced a beautiful tribute point for the retiring Regent, which report had been ordered spread upon the records of the Chapter and the minutes stood approved.

Mrs. Ben Franklin Jr., who in September will assume the duties as Regent, was the leader of the program. She read an ably prepared paper on the flags of all nations, dwelling particularly with the American flag, followed by Miss Lillie Lee Hogg who read a most interesting paper on the American flag, after which the ladies joined in singing the Star Spangled Banner. Mrs. George Poffehbarger read a patriotic paper on the flag of France. Mrs. Downing took the flag of Italy, Mrs. Dunbar that of Spain, Mrs. Will Downie Ireland, and Mrs. Charles McQuigg, Scotland. All the papers were full of interest. Mrs. Margaret Bryan sang the flags of all nations, illustrating the Day with the flags of the countries of which she sang. She responded to a hearty encore with a verse of Annie Laurie. Mrs. Downing rendered a flag song and was heartily encored. Mrs. Beale gave a piano solo, a selection from Il Trovatore, Ah I Have Sighed To Rest Me, artistically rendered, Miss Veva Haptonstall was accompanist and there are none better.

Taken upon the whole it was the most successful social session ever held in the old log cabin. The following is the list of guests:

Mesdames D. E. Newton, W. H. Newton, M. M. Brown, M. D. Brown, C. V. Petty, Mrs. Smith, Miss Jean
